She stated she did not sign for the NOD, as her home was under renovations. This is Ms. Cole first late fee assessment.

To Whom It May Concern:

Please accept this letter in explanation of my late submission of my Personal Financial Disclosure Statement regarding calendar year 2019. It is also my hopes that it serves as my appeal to you regarding your recently leveled fine of $1500.00.

First of all, I was unaware of any requirement to file such a report as I received no prior training and/or knowledge regarding the duties of the position of City Councilperson in DeQuincy or any other Louisiana city or town. When I decided to run for the City Council position, I must admit that it was a spur-of-moment decision. It was simply my desire to serve in this position that was being vacated by my pastor who desired to enter the upcoming Mayoral Race. If he vacated the position, there would be no one to step into the vacancy. In efforts to serve my community, I signed up to run. I followed the steps that I was told to do. I simply wanted to serve my community. I didn't even know that this was a paid position.

After receiving said fine, I began to research to see what instructions I had missed and/or where such pertinent information was recorded. I did locate the "Summary of the La. Campaign Finance Disclosure Act" (included with letter). I have not located any other information. I asked the two people who hold this position prior to my taking this seat. Neither was aware of what I was inquiring. On the internet, I did however, find a list of many others listed whose fines go back quite a few years (included with letter)). Perhaps the lack of available information instructing potential candidates on procedure might explain this backlog of debt and probably disappointed and disillusioned potentially really dedicated politicians.

ETHICS BOARD REC'D

During the year of having taken office, I did not sign for any letter from La. Board of Ethics. However due to Home Renovations many things were disheveled in prep and during the work in my home. When I did find said communication from the state, complete with green signing slip still attached, (DeQuincy had just put a new postman in service), I phoned your office and made an appointment to bring this form and required information in as soon as possible. At said appointment I was given one-on-one assistance. That was certainly most appreciated.

It certainly was not my intention to ignore my duties to report this information. I am a retired teacher of students with Special Needs. I am sure you know teachers do not earn a lot of money. This fine would inflict a tremendous hardship on me and my family as I am a single mother. I am, therefore, praying that you dismiss the fine you have levied on me. This is my first offense in such a matter or any while in the position. In addition, at present I am experiencing a serious medical crisis which may cause me to relinquish this position.

I pray that this letter is sufficient to explain how and why my report was submitted late. Again, I pray that you will accept my letter of explanation as sufficient.

Humbly Submitted,

It also includes any corporation or group that accepts payments for personal services related to an election or campaign in excess of $500 during a calendar year unless it has been permitted or licensed to provide that type of service and has been regularly doing so in the area at least 90 days prior to the services being rendered.

- E. "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, labor union, political committee, corporation, limited liability company or other legal entity, including their subsidiaries.

IV. Recordkeeping and Reporting (R.S. 18:1491.4, 18:1491.5 and 18:1491.7)

- A. Records of receipts and disbursements must be kept by the candidate or his committee and maintained for two years after the final report is filed. Records of PACs and persons supporting propositions must be maintained for six years.
- B. Candidates/committees must designate a bank or savings and loan or a money market mutual fund as a campaign depository. All receipts must be deposited into an account maintained at the depository and all expenditures (except for petty cash) should be by check drawn on the account. The memo line of the check should indicate the objects or services for which it is drawn.

Petty Cash Exception: A petty cash fund may be maintained. No expenditure in excess of $100 may be made from the fund and no expenditure shall be made from the petty cash fund for any personal services, except tips for serving food and drink. A complete record shall be kept of all expenditures made from a petty cash fund and a receipt shall be kept in any case in which a receipt would be provided in the usual course of business. Petty cash expenditures must be itemized as all other expenditures on the disclosure forms.

- C. Records are required to be kept of every contribution, including the sale of tickets to testimonials or other fundraising events. The date, amount, and name and address of the contributor must be recorded and reported. Candidates have 10 days after the receipt of a contribution to decide whether that contribution will be accepted and deposited. This 10 day period does not apply during the 20 day period immediately preceding the election day when special reports are due.

Exception: Records are not required to be kept of the name and addresses of individual purchasers of campaign paraphernalia and raffle tickets for $25 or less. The total amount received and deposited from campaign paraphernalia and raffle ticket sales must be reported. Paraphernalia and raffle ticket sales are still contributions and successive single sales may not be used to avoid the recordkeeping requirements.

- D. Cash contributions are subject to a $100 per person limit during the calendar year. The cash contributor must be given a receipt containing the name, address and signature of the contributor. The candidate must keep a copy of the receipt.
- E. Records are required to be kept of every expenditure, including those made by a public relations firm, advertising agency or agent. The date, amount and name and address of the recipient must be recorded and reported. The public relations firm, advertising agency or agent must collect the information required to complete the candidate's report and furnish it on a timely basis. The public relations firm, advertising agency or agent is prohibited from accepting payment from a third party to place an advertisement which purports to be paid for by a candidate or his committee.
- F. Each person who makes an expenditure for the purpose of canvassing shall submit in writing to the candidate or political committee on whose behalf the expenditure was made the name, address and last four digits of the social security number of the canvasser.
- G. Every transaction involving receipts or disbursements must be reported, regardless of amount.

- H. A political committee is required to clearly indicate that its contribution to a candidate or a candidate's committee is from a political committee either by a designation on the check or by a separate notification attached to the contribution.

V. Reporting Deadlines (R.S. 18:1491.6 or 1495.4)

Note: A specific reporting schedule is available for each election. Reports are filed when received, when postmarked or receipted on a return receipt request if sent by United States Mail, when received electronically, or when deposited for delivery with a commercial delivery service as indicated on a receipt.

Political committees that receive contributions in excess of $50,000 or make expenditures in excess of $50,000 in a calendar year, other than a political committee of a recognized political party, must electronically file disclosure reports.

All candidates for a major or district level office are required to electronically file campaign finance disclosure reports. Electronic filing for other candidates is voluntary.

The L.E.A.D.E.R.S. program, which should be used for electronic filing, can be accessed from the Board's website, www.ethics.la.gov. To begin filing electronically, a password and identification number must be applied for at least five business days prior to a reporting deadline.

- A. ANNUAL REPORTS are filed for each candidate/committee no later than February 15 of each year and are complete as of the preceding December 31. The reports are used when a candidate begins participating in an election set for a future calendar year.

Exceptions: An annual report is not due (1) if another required report was filed any time after the preceding December 10 and prior to the February 15 due date, or (2) if the candidate/committee has received no contributions, made no expenditures, and received or made no loans during the reporting period.

- B. 180 DAYS PRIOR TO THE PRIMARY ELECTION (180-P) Filed only by major office candidates and their committees
- C. 90 DAYS PRIOR TO THE PRIMARY ELECTION (90-P) Filed only by major office candidates and their committees

- E. 10 DAYS PRIOR TO THE PRIMARY ELECTION (10-P)
- F. ELECTION DAY EXPENDITURES (EDE-P) REPORT – TO BE FILED ONLY IF EXPENDITURES MADE ARE SUBJECT TO THE REPORTING REQUIREMENT
1. due 10 days after the primary election.
 2. name and address of all election day workers must be reported, as well as expenditures for election day advertisements and expenditures on automated calling that are performed, or broadcasted or published on election day.

G. 10 DAYS PRIOR TO THE GENERAL ELECTION (10-G)

1. filed by all candidates and committees participating in the primary election
2. last report required for candidates with no outstanding debts or loans and not participating in general election or committees not participating in general election

H. ELECTION DAY EXPENDITURES (EDE-G) REPORT

1. due 10 days after the general election
2. name and address of all election day workers must be reported as well as expenditure for election day advertisements

2. last report required if there are no outstanding debts or loans or surplus

J. AFFIDAVITS IN LIEU OF REPORTS

1. Candidates for major or district offices, and committees supporting such candidates, who do not spend over $5,000 and do not receive contributions from one source, including the use of the candidate's personal funds, totaling in excess of $200, may file an affidavit in lieu of each report required above.
2. A separate affidavit is required for each report and once a candidate exceeds either of the threshold amounts he may not return to filing affidavits for that election. Candidates for "any other offices" may never file an affidavit.

K. SPECIAL REPORTS are required during the 20 day period immediately preceding an election if:

1. a contribution or loan in excess of $1,000 for major office candidates or $500 for district office candidates, or $250 for any other office candidates is received and accepted during the 20 day period, or
2. an expenditure in excess of $200 is made during the 20 day period to a candidate, committee or other person required to file disclosure reports who makes endorsements.

Note: Special Reports must be filed within 48 hours after the transaction occurs.

L. SUPPLEMENTAL REPORTS are required to be filed annually by February 15, complete through the preceding December 31, if the last report of a candidate for an election shows outstanding debts or loans or surplus funds. Exception: A supplemental report need not be filed if the candidate is not elected to any office and shows outstanding debts and loans or a surplus totaling less than $2,500.

M. WITHDRAWN AND UNOPPOSED CANDIDATES: The final report of a candidate who withdraws or is unopposed is the next report due after the date that the candidate officially withdraws from the election, through the Secretary of State, or becomes unopposed.

N. PROPOSITION ELECTIONS: Reports are required 30 days prior to the election, 10 days prior to the election and 40 days after the election. Special reports are required for any contribution or expenditure in excess of $200 during the 20 day period immediately preceding the election.

O. RECALL ELECTIONS: A statement of organization is required within 3 days of the filing of the recall petition. Reports are due 45 days, 135 days, and 200 days after the filing of the recall petition. If the recall effort is successful, the rules for proposition elections then apply.

VI. Contribution Limits (R.S. 18:1505.2 H, K)

- A. Contributions, in-kind contributions, loans, endorsements or guarantees on loans and transfers of funds are all counted towards the contribution limits.
- B. Exceptions:
1. A candidate's personal funds are not subject to the limits.
 2. Loans obtained by the candidate made in the ordinary course of business, on a basis which assures repayment, at the usual and customary interest rate from a state bank, a federally chartered depository institution, a depository institution with insured accounts, a licensed lender or an insurance company do not count towards the limits. However, a loan from such an institution shall be considered a "loan" by each endorser or guarantor in the proportion of their liability, and the endorsement or guarantee is subject to the contribution limit.

The contribution limits are detailed in the following chart:

	To a major office candidate or candidate committee per election ¹	To a district office candidate or candidate committee per election ¹	To an any other office candidate or candidate committee per election ¹	To a PAC between 1/1/19 and 12/31/22
Individual may give ²	$5,000	$2,500	$1,000	$100,000 ⁸
Family Member of Candidate may give	$5,000	$2,500	$1,000	$100,000 ⁸
Legal Entity may give ³	$5,000	$2,500	$1,000	$100,000 ⁸
PAC may give ⁴	$5,000	$2,500	$1,000	$5,000/2,500/1,000 ⁶ ($100,000 Party PAC's ⁷)
Big PAC ⁵ may give ⁴	$10,000	$5,000	$2,000	$10,000/5,000/2,000 ⁶ ($100,000 Party PAC's ⁷)

Democratic or Republican Party or committees may give	no limits	no limits	no limits	no limits

¹ The primary and general elections are considered as two separate elections. A candidate may accept contributions for the general election only if he is in the general election and only after the primary election.

² A husband and wife may each make contributions to the same candidate up to the limit. However, separate checks should be used. If a single check is signed by one spouse, the other must provide an affidavit as to their intent to share in the contribution.

⁴ Candidates are also subject to an aggregate limit on the contributions they may accept from all PACs combined for both the primary and general elections. The aggregate must be calculated beginning with the first report filed for the election through the current reporting period for that election. Those limits are: $80,000 - major office, $60,000 - district office, and $20,000 - any other office.

⁷ Contributions made by a political committee to a recognized political party or any committee thereof is $100,000.

⁸ In The Fund for Louisiana's Future v. Louisiana Board of Ethics, et al., USDC, Eastern District of Louisiana No. 14-0368 (May 2, 2014), the Court concluded that the limit did not apply to contributions received by an independent expenditure-only political committee.

VII. Maintenance of records (R.S. 18:1495.3(B)(2))

A record must be kept for every transaction, including the sale of tickets to fundraising events. The sale of a ticket to a fundraising event is reported as a contribution. Exception: In the case of a single transaction involving the sale of campaign paraphernalia and raffle tickets for $25 or less, no record need be kept except the total amount received and deposited and the fact that such amount was received from such sale. Successive sales cannot be done to avoid the reporting requirements. Campaign paraphernalia includes campaign pins, buttons, badges, flags, emblems, hats, shirts, banners, literature and similar items (R.S. 18:1483(6)(b)(iii)). (Campaign paraphernalia does not include the sale of dinners; those sales need to be reported as contributions.)

VIII. Prohibited Practices (R.S. 18:1505.2)

A. Failure to file or failure to timely file a required report. Automatic penalties of at least $100, $60 or $40 per day for "Major," "District," and "Any Other" office, respectively, will be assessed for late reports.

NOTE: Unpaid campaign finance fines, fees or penalties may have an adverse effect on a candidate's ability to run for public office in the future, as the Board of Ethics will object to the candidacy of a person who has an outstanding fine, fee or penalty equal to or in excess of $250 assessed for a violation of the Campaign Finance Disclosure Act for which all appeals have been exhausted. Also a candidate or a candidate's committee which owes outstanding fines or late fees may not expend campaign contributions until all such fines are paid.

B. Making contributions or loans through or in the name of another.

C. Using funds from an anonymous source. Anonymous contributions must be transmitted to the State.

- D. Making or receiving cash contributions in excess of $100 in a calendar year per source. Any cash contribution must be evidenced by a receipt containing the name, address and signature (or mark) of the contributor.
- E. Making or receiving payments, including reimbursements of costs, for the transportation of any voter to a polling place or for absentee voting unless the payment is to a licensed bus, taxi, or transportation service. (R.S. 18:1531) Medical transportation services do not qualify to receive payments for transporting voters.
- F. Making expenditures in excess of $100 from a petty cash fund or making cash payments for personal services, except for tips for serving food or drink.
- G. Contributions or expenditures made by a corporation, labor organization, or trade, business, or professional association unless specifically authorized by either (1) a vote of the board of directors or executive board, or (2) any person whom the board has specifically empowered to authorize such contributions or expenditures, or (3) a vote of the membership of the labor organization. Cash contributions in any amount by a corporation, labor organization, or trade, business or professional organization are prohibited.
- H. Financial activity over $500 in a calendar year by a political committee that has failed to file a statement of organization and contributions by a candidate to any political committee which should have filed a statement of organization but failed to do so. Committees that have filed statements of organization are issued certificates of registration by the Supervisory Committee on an annual basis.
- I. Campaign funds may not be used for any personal use unrelated to a political campaign or the holding of public office. Campaign funds may not be used to pay a fine for penalties imposed pursuant to the Code of Governmental Ethics. Also, campaign funds may not be used to purchase immovable property or a motor vehicle. The expenditure disclosed on the campaign finance report should fully disclose the purpose of the expenditure as it relates to the campaign or holding of public office. Excess funds may be: (1) returned to contributors on a pro rata basis, (2) given as an IRS approved charitable donation, (3) expended in support of or opposition to another candidate, a proposition, or a political party, or (4) maintained for future campaigns.
- J. Only the candidate assessed a campaign finance fine can pay the fine using funds of the campaign or his personal funds (Third parties cannot pay campaign finance fines or penalties.). The Supervisory Committee may prohibit the use of campaign funds to pay fines or penalties for intentional or egregious violations of the Campaign Finance Disclosure Act. Also, campaign funds cannot be used to pay for fines or penalties of the Code of Governmental Ethics.
- K. Coercing or attempting to coerce a person to make or withhold a contribution or affecting an individual's employment based on a contribution or the failure to make a contribution.
- L. A candidate's immediate family member may not be paid for services provided to that candidate's campaign unless it is to a business in which an immediate family member has any ownership interest and (1) is a bona fide business that has been doing business regularly in the state for at least 12 months providing goods/services related to the payment/expenditure and, at the time
